

Since her first experience singing as part of Minnesota Opera's youth program Project Opera!, Kara has dedicated herself to studying the art, languages, and characters of opera.

Kara began her 2019/20 season with a return to Fargo-Moorhead Opera, making her mainstage debut as Hänsel in their fall production of Humperdinck's Hänsel und Gretel. She made debuts with the Oratorio Society of Minnesota, appearing in their program of French sacred music, most notably singing the alto solo in Duruflé's Requiem, and with the Chicago Bar Association Symphony Orchestra as a recipient of The American Prize Chicago Oratorio Award, appearing as the mezzo soloist in their presentation of Handel's Messiah. During the remainder of the season, Kara makes her debut with Sarasota Opera as an Apprentice Artist.

This summer, Kara joins Lakes Area Music Festival as an inaugural Vocal Fellow covering the roles of Mary in Wagner's Der fliegende Holländer and Junon in Rameau's Platée. She then begins work with Journey North Opera singing Taller Zegner Daughter in the Minnesota premiere of Missy Mazzoli's Proving Up. Kara was slated to return to Mill City Summer Opera singing Giovanna and covering Maddalena in their July production of Verdi's Rigoletto - the production was cancelled due to the Covid-19 outbreak.

In the 2018/19 season, Kara made role and company debuts with Fargo-Moorhead Opera singing Dorabella in Così fan tutte and Mercédès in Carmen, Mill City Summer Opera covering Dorabella, and the Lakes Area Music Festival covering the title role of Offenbach's La belle Hélène.

Other performed roles of note include Ottone (Agrippina), Madame de Croissy (Dialogues of the Carmelites), Dritte Dame (Die Zauberflöte), and Mrs. Soames (Our Town). On the concert stage, Kara has been heard as a soloist in Vaughan Williams' Mass in G Minor, Mozart's Coronation Mass, and Erik Satie's Socrate. No stranger to operetta, Kara has notably sung the roles of Mad Margaret (Ruddigore), Katisha (The Mikado), and Melissa (Princess Ida). She is a graduate of Drake University and the New England Conservatory as well as apprenticeships with the College Light Opera Company, Fargo-Moorhead Opera and the Santa Fe Opera.

Kara is currently based in the Twin Cities, where she studies with mezzo soprano Victoria Vargas and enjoys working on counted cross stitch, listening to NPR, perusing museums, and spending time with her family and her dog, Davos.
